The Canary Islands offer a set of attractive tax advantages that are successfully applied to film production thanks to the Canary Islands Economic and Tax Regime (REF)¹, anchored in the Spanish Constitution and the State support authorized by the European Union.

This establishes the Canary Islands as one of the best places in Europe to host film shoots as in addition to these tax breaks, they boast an excellent climate, natural conditions, wide-ranging landscapes, sustainability, and a strong local film industry with equipment and qualified, experienced staff ready to meet your every need.

THESE TAX INCENTIVES ARE:

Deduction for investing in foreign productions: 50%²-45%

Deduction for investing in Spanish productions or co-productions: 50%³ - 45%

The Canary Islands Special Zone (ZEC)³, to set up companies in the Canary Islands at a reduced rate of 4% on Corporate Income Tax, which is compatible with the above mentioned tax reliefs.

According to the Canaries REF, the specific incentives for film production provided for in the Corporate Income Tax Law⁵, are increased by 20 percentage points on the amount of the deduction for film productions and the limit is 80% higher than in the rest of Spain in general terms¹.

1. Law 19/1994, of 6 July that modifies the Economic Regime of the Canary Islands (D.Adicional 14^a)

2. 54% on the first million euros when expenses in the Canaries exceed 1.900.000€

3. 54% depending on the type of production and its intensity limit.

4. Law 19/1994 of 6 July that amends the Economic and Tax Regime of the Canary Islands as per Law 15/2014 of 19 December

5. Law 27/2014, of 27 November, on corporate income tax.

1 50%-45% DEDUCTION FOR FOREIGN PRODUCTIONS⁶

Producers with tax domicile in the Canary Islands who take care of a foreign production (service production companies) benefit from a 50%² tax rebate on eligible expenditure in the Canaries on the first million euros, and 45% from then on⁷. This incentive is capped at 36 million euros¹.

6. Article 36.2 of Law 27/2014, of 27 November, on Corporate Income Tax.

7. 14th additional disposition of the Law 19/1994, of 6 July, that modifies the Fiscal and Economical Regime of the Canary Islands.

WHAT TYPE OF PRODUCTION QUALIFIES?

Foreign productions of feature films or audio-visual works, including television films and series, in fiction, documentary or animation, that may be manufactured in a hard-copy format prior to being mass-produced.

WHAT TYPE OF EXPENDITURE IS ELIGIBLE?

Expenditure in the Canary Islands which is directed connected to the production:

Expenditure on creative staff, provided that their tax residence is in Spain or in any other European Economic Area Member State.

Expenditure related to the use of technical industries and other suppliers.

The full list of eligible expenditure is available on the following links:

- Eligible expenditure for live action productions
- Eligible expenditure for animation

WHO CAN BENEFIT FROM THE DEDUCTION?

Production companies or production service companies whose tax residence is in the Canary Islands, are registered in the Instituto de la Cinematografía y de las Artes Audiovisuales (ICAA) [Film & Audiovisual Arts Institute] and have executed a foreign film or audiovisual work.

HOW DO I GET THE TAX DEDUCTION?

The amount (50²-45% of eligible expenditure) is deducted from the amount payable in the corporate income tax in the tax period after the production service is completed. If the tax payable were not high enough to cover the full amount of the deduction, the remaining amount can be deducted from the corporate income tax.

In Animation the deduction can be applied by partial instalments arranged by the work delivery certificates issued (Binding Consultation V0065-17).

To be able to benefit from this deduction, and have greater legal certainty, it is necessary to previously apply to the Agencia Estatal de Administración Tributaria (AEAT) [Inland Revenue Office] that will answer within 20 days.

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

- The eligible expenditure on the Canary Islands will be at least €1,000,000 (€200,000 for animation).
- The total cost of the production will be at least €2,000,000 and eligible expenditure cannot exceed 80% of the total cost of the production⁷.
- This deduction together with other subsidies for the same production cannot be above 50% of the production cost.
- Must be in possession of the Spanish Cultural Certificate (information here).

8. Article 45 of RD 634/2015, of 10 July, that approves the Regulation of Corporate Income Tax.

2 50%-45% DEDUCTION FOR INVESTING IN SPANISH PRODUCTIONS OR CO-PRODUCTIONS⁸

In the case of national productions shot in the Canaries and granted with a Canarian Certificate of Audiovisual Production⁹, the deduction percentages are those stated in article 36.1 of the 27/2014 Law, of 27 November, on Corporate Income Tax, which amount to 50 % on the first million euros, and 45 % from then on; though it may reach 54% for certain film productions. Furthermore, this incentive is capped at a maximum of 36 million euros⁶.
